

DEVOTE

Job Posting: Web Developer

A Web Developer at Devote will lead the firm in the interactive and digital space, building new web pages and improve our own company website. The right person for this role will be proficient in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and PHP. The Web Developer will be responsible for building and deploying new front-end features to existing WordPress websites, and will be equipped to recommend and integrate plugins and third-party platforms as necessary. Additionally, the Web Developer will be responsible for routine maintenance of existing client sites, the Devote site, and will also be responsible for server-side and hosting organization.

At Devote, we believe the every individual on the team is creative and brings their own interpretation of creativity to each project. We are a design-intensive firm, and this individual will be curious and creative in exploring how to maximized thoughtful design principles as executed in efficient, innovative ways in the digital space.

Web Developer Responsibilities & Skillsets

- Bachelor's degree or technical degree in computer science, web development, software development, or related field
- Web development fundamentals, including HTML, CSS, and JavaScript
- Front-end JavaScript frameworks knowledge
- Back-end framework experience such as WordPress and e-commerce platforms such as Shopify
- Familiarity with WebFlow maintenance and upkeep
- Content management systems creation and management
- Working knowledge of graphic design
- API development
- Relational databases such as MySQL
- Agile and test-driven development best practices